MyHealthily to Release a Multi-Carrier Medical Questionnaire

[ENGLEWOOD, NJ, January 17, 2023] — MyHealthily Insurance Solutions announces the release of a new medically underwritten questionnaire. This one form completes five carrier specific medically underwritten questionnaires.

"I am proud to be a part of something that is taking the lead in changing health insurance, specifically for small groups in every facet of the business."

-Jeremy McLendon, VP of Insurance Affairs at MyHealthily

By creating an all-in-one medically underwritten questionnaire, brokers are able to obtain multiple underwritten quotes simultaneously from five carriers. Clients can complete one simple form from MyHealthily- to fill in five carrier medical underwritten questionnaires.

This keeps clients and their employees from having to fill out a medically underwritten questionnaire from each carrier. MyHealthily and their all-in-one platform are changing the way brokers and agents review, quote, sell, enroll, and service small group benefits for the better!

Brokers and agents can learn more about MyHealthily's new medically underwritten questionnaire by joining a free webinar on Thursday, January 19, 2023 at 1:00pm EST. The link to register for this free webinar is: <https://meet.zoho.com/JXNVHy9HiR>
