MyHealthily Announces Ancillary Options with Beam Benefits

[ENGLEWOOD, NJ, October 10, 2022] — MyHealthily Insurance Solutions announces the release of ancillary benefits through a partnership with Beam Benefits for dental and vision.

"We are excited to work with Beam Benefits who understand the downfalls of many coverage options, and works to reduce employer expenses, while still giving employees the strong benefits plans they need."

-Michael Malhame, CEO of MyHealthily

This release further rounds out MyHealthily's ever-growing offerings of 135+ carriers throughout the entire United States. Products included in the launch of Beam Benefits on the MyHealthily platform include dental and vision ancillary options. Each of these plans is offered to all employers during their shopping experience with their broker.

"The MyHealthily platform easily incorporates into the sales process. The efficiency is amazing, with a variety of plans, pricing, and options at your fingertips."

-Tom Rogers, FB Insure

Brokers who utilize the MyHealthily platform not only save time, and paperwork, they can offer hundreds of thousands of plan options in seconds. This release further expands those offerings and provides brokers with the opportunity to increase their personal revenue, while being on the forefront of health insurance technologies.
